It all began on
8. 2. 1960

David William Fox
came into the world
a healthy 7lb 7oz boy at 2.55 AM.

First Bath ~
The tub could have been bigger.

Sunning myself
at my first home

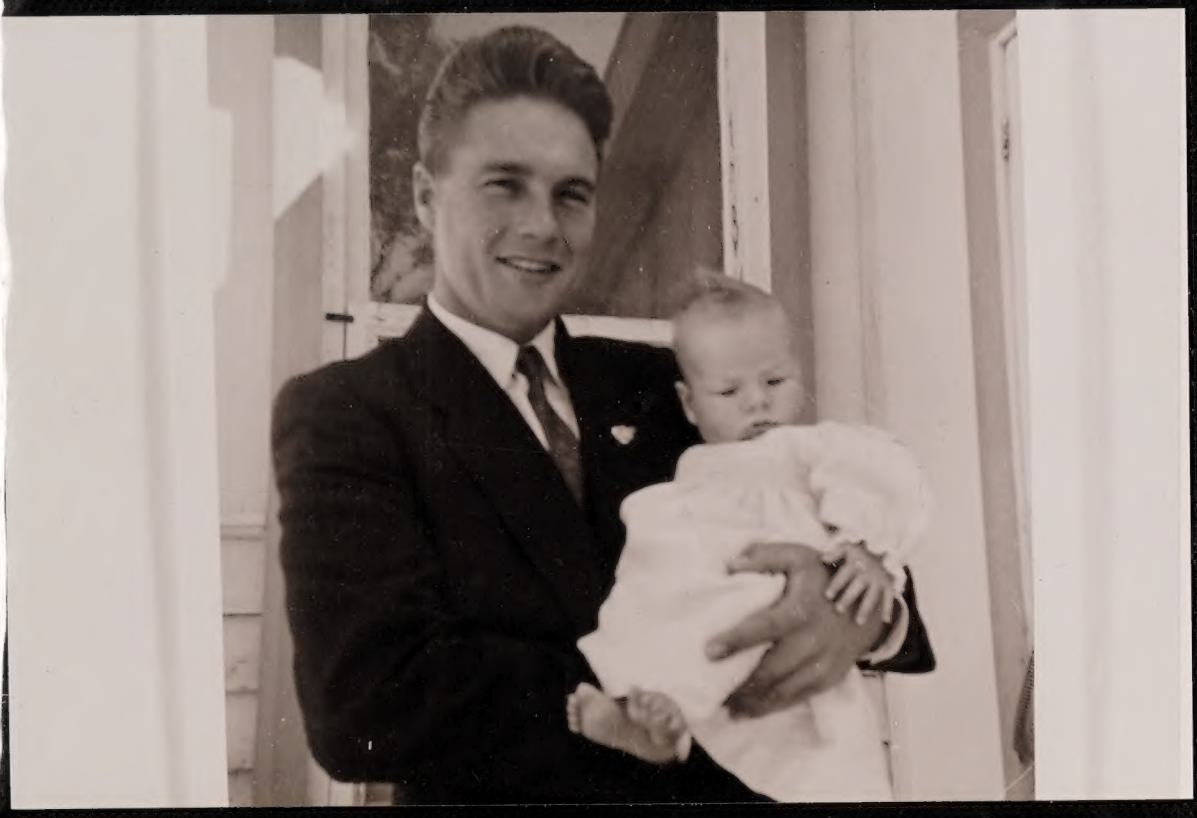
Australia



Proud Dad & Mum
House at Wardonga
Anzac Day
25.4.1960

I don't really mind
being behind bars.

Sunshine and already sitting up.
If I can sit then
Perhaps I could stand.
5½ months.

Outside our shop

Playpens are fun
but I would love to Get my hands on those Car Pamphlets behind me.

Inside our shop at Watoona.

None of this crawling for me - Just Give me something to hold and I'll be up and away.

8½ months

Mum thinks I'm smart.

Outside the shop

at Watsonia

Where is that horse?

I don't like waiting all day for my turn

I can't wait to get moving - my first taste of horse power.

Our nanny Goat Bonny
Gave birth to twins
Much better fun to Play with than stuffed toys.

Dad wanted me to be first to see our new Morris 1000
Panel Van.

Get me out of here
This is a weir -
I thought we were GOING SURFING.

Waroona Weir
1960

Just when I thought
I was settled in Waroona we packed up and set off across Australia in our van. I think we are somewhere on the Nullabor Plains.
Mum is a bit slow with the tucker.

Back into civilization
at Warrambool - Victoria
This beats 1000 miles of dirt road.

"Just Put the house here, Dad."

Excavating the Land
at
18 Fox Road. East Ryde
Our family home.

Shifting barrow loads of soil can become a bit tiresome.

Dad won't mind if I borrow a few of his Tools to Play with.

Whilst the house was being built We stayed with Grandma & Dah Fox.

Lots of fun in their back yard.

Guess what Mum & Dad SPRUNG on me? A Baby Sister Margaret.

Here I am with Uncle Peter Harries when he came to visit.

Celebrating my 2nd Birthday
Grandma & Dah's house
at
41 Perry St. Leichhardt.

"Listen Dad - It might be an idea
to invest in a bit
of real estate down
there!"
